this book develops a thorough account of the sphere of human moral action in sustained dialogue with Jürgen Moltmann by examining God's role as promise giver particularly in the Christian understanding of resurrection this work describes the occupancy of both history and space in moral terms this leads to an understanding of Jesus' description of the Kingdom of God to feature prominently in describing both the possibility and content of human moral action by offering an account of each of the main doctrines found in Moltmann's corpus the role of the future the Trinity the Holy Spirit and anthropology this book locates how each contributes to the understanding of ethics from a Christian perspective and subsequently applies these findings to the contemporary issue of poverty and global economics

the public intellectual and the culture of hope brings together a number of winners of the Polanyi Prize in literature a group whose research constitutes a diversity of methodological approaches to the study of culture to examine the rich but often troubled association between the concepts of the public the intellectual both the person and the condition culture and hope the contributors probe the influence of intellectual life on the public sphere by reflecting on analyzing and reimagining social and cultural identity the public intellectual and the culture of hope reflects on the challenging and often vexed work of intellectualism within the public sphere by exploring how cultural materials from foundational enlightenment writings to contemporary populist media spectacles frame intellectual debates within the clear and ever present gaze of the public writ large these serve to illuminate how past cultures can shed light on present and future issues as well as how current debates can reframe our approaches to older subjects

filled with eternal truths written and spoken by African American Christians through the years this collection will inspire believers to keep the faith and become a positive voice in society
